

Introducing PEARL's New Management Partner, the Kellen Company

Wheat Ridge, CO - The PEARL membership was recently notified of a change in management effective March 1, 2015. During 2014, the PEARL Board of Directors undertook a process of preparing a request for proposals, soliciting and receiving more than 20 proposals for consideration. After careful review, the Kellen Company emerged as the leader and was subsequently engaged to assume PEARL's management responsibilities.

Kellen is a global leader in not-for-profit association management with offices in Atlanta, Denver, Washington, DC, New York, Chicago, Brussels, and Beijing. In its 50 year history, Kellen has grown significantly by focusing on the health and wellbeing of its clients and, at the same time, nurturing the many talents of its staff. Kellen is an employee owned company, ensuring that each employee's interest remains focused on the business of servicing each client in the most effective manner possible. They are motivated to achieve growth in the services that each client offers and the financial success needed to drive member satisfaction.

In acknowledging the acceptance of Kellen as PEARL's new management partner, Peter Rush, CEO, said "On behalf of the Kellen Company, we are very pleased to welcome PEARL as an important client and we look forward to providing a level of services that will nurture a long and rewarding relationship. We believe that our experience provides an excellent fit for PEARL and we look forward to helping the organization in strengthening its strategic position within its professional and technical community."

David Stumph, Vice President of Kellen's Denver office, has been appointed to serve as the PEARL Executive Director. He is supported by Account Manager, Andrew Van Wasshova and a team of specialists in such areas as information technology, membership services, accounting and financial services, and meeting management. Kellen's overall service capabilities extend well beyond those associated with the daily management needs to include public relations, marketing and communications, website design, social media, and a variety of other service capabilities available as needed basis.

We are excited to have this opportunity! We believe that PEARL's potential is great and we look forward to playing a part in shaping its future success. For more information about Kellen, we invite you to visit our website at www.kellencompany.com.
